3. City Museum – Stadtmuseum

The Stadtmuseum is located in one of the finest Baroque buildings in Bonn. The City Museum is a well worth a visit, because it shows the town’s history – from prehistoric times and the Middle Ages up to the 20th century – in an interesting journey through the ages.

4. House Rampeins – Rampeinsheimhaus

This house is an example of a magnificent manor house in Baroque style with painted ceiling fresco and marble. The mansion was built around 1707 as lieu de conversation.

5. Industrial Croft and Postal History Museum – Handwerks- und Postgeschichtliche Museum

The museum is housed in an old factory and industrial monument, the so-called "Käfekolonnaden Friedrichshain". One collection shows the history of industrial fencing. The area was a major center for the production of fencing until the mid-19th century. The museum displays the development of postal services in Bonn and the County of Nassau.

6. St. Mary Church – Marienkirche, St.Matthäuskirche

Generally referred to as the Oberstadt St. Mary or Marienkirche is a Gothic style building with two main aisles and a small organ. The St. Mary Church is located on an imposing monastic site on a knoll and was erected on the ruins of a Romanesque church. It was built by the Count Palatine and abbot of the Markgrafenkreuztal, the Markgraf von Nassau, and it was completed in 1204. The church has two towers. The most important work of art in the church is the altarpiece with the Triptych of St. Mary and St. Peter. The church is a major destination for lovers of architecture.

7. City Library in the Old Town Hall – Stadtbibliothek im Alten Rathaus

The Old Town Hall building was built in 1767. It is the most impressive example of classicist building in Bonn. The Library has over 90,000 books and other media. The Alte Rathaus (Old Town Hall) was the site of all old city halls and the town hall buildings.

8. Werner Jacobi Square – Werner-Jacobi-Platz

The square is named after Werner Jacobi, who was a German lawyer and politician. He was also a member of the Committee of Government of Bonn in 1848. The unveiling of the municipal technical department is situated here.

9. House Wessel – Villa Wessel

The house was built in 1851 as a residence for the owner of a large factory in Bonn. The design of the house is a perfect example of the new classical style. The house was once very famous in the 19th century and is known as the "Villa Wessel".

10. Art Gallery – Van Schraven-Haus

The Art Gallery is housed in a building, which was formerly owned by the von Schraven family. The gallery is known throughout Germany as a location for the exhibition of works of art from the period of the German Empire. The building was originally erected in 1973 and is known as the "Haus Schraven".

11. Unna Square – Unna Platz

Unna Gate stood at the end of Unna Street until the beginning of the 18th century. The gate was built in the 13th century and led from the west and north. Today it is a pedestrian street. In front of the Gate is a monument by Carl Friedrich von Drais in 1850 to the famous inventor’s work on the car. The monument is situated on Unna Gate at the former site of the old city wall.

12. Westgate – Westtor

The Westgate (Westtor) was located at the crossing of the old city streets (Langenstrasse and Dorotheenstrasse). It was the outermost gate to the countryside to the Aachen, Cologne, and Hagen. After the old town wall was taken down, the gate became a symbol of the growing importance of Bonn.

13. Siegburg – Siegburger

The town is situated on the river Sieg and is known for its historic town center and the Siebengebirge (Siegerland). The town is also home to the Siegerland-Museum, which is dedicated to the history and culture of the Siegerland region.

14. Siegburg Castle – Siebengebirgische Burg

The castle was built in 1154 as a fortress for the Counts of Diez. It has been a symbol of Siegburg’s history and is now a major tourist attraction. The castle was once home to many famous Siegbeursians, including Siegfried von Siegburg, who was a major figure in the history of the Siegbeursians.

15. Bad Wörishofen – Marienbad

The town of Bad Wörishofen is located in the NW of the Siegerland region. The town is known for its thermal springs and hot mineral water. The townspeople are also known for their hospitality and friendliness.

16. Siegburg Museum – Siegburger Museum

The museum is located in the historic town center and is dedicated to the history and culture of the Siegbeursians. It features many exhibits and artifacts related to the history of the town.

17. Oberstadt – Oberstadt

The Oberstadt is the historical center of Bonn and is known for its many historic buildings and monuments. The area is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike.

18. city market - Stadthalle

The Stadthalle is a popular destination for locals and tourists alike. It is home to many local shops and restaurants and is a hub of cultural activity.

19. Siegburg Castle – Siebengebirgische Burg

The castle was built in 1154 as a fortress for the Counts of Diez. It has been a symbol of Siegburg’s history and is now a major tourist attraction. The castle was once home to many famous Siegbeursians, including Siegfried von Siegburg, who was a major figure in the history of the Siegbeursians.

10. Old bathhouse and wellness – Alt Stadtbad

The Old Bathhouse and Wellness Centre, which was first inaugurated in 1934, has been converted into a home for senior citizens for the Frohnsee community. The building on the site of the old town wall was taken down in the 1970s and a building of a modern style was constructed.

11. Old Town Wall – Alte Stadtmauer

The Old Town Wall is a historical monument that has been preserved. The wall is located on the site of the old town wall and features a tower and a gate that was once part of the old town wall.

12. City Information Centre and Train Station – Informationsservice und Bahnhof

The City Information Centre and Train Station is located in the old town of Bonn. It is a hub of transportation and is home to the Bonn airport and train station.

13. Multimedia City – Multimediastadt

The Multimedia City is a popular destination for locals and tourists alike. It is home to many local shops and restaurants and is a hub of cultural activity.

The museum is located in the historic town center and is dedicated to the history and culture of the Siegbeursians. It features many exhibits and artifacts related to the history of the town.

15. Oberstadt – Oberstadt

The Oberstadt is the historical center of Bonn and is known for its many historic buildings and monuments. The area is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike.

16. Siegburg Castle – Siebengebirgische Burg

The castle was built in 1154 as a fortress for the Counts of Diez. It has been a symbol of Siegburg’s history and is now a major tourist attraction. The castle was once home to many famous Siegbeursians, including Siegfried von Siegburg, who was a major figure in the history of the Siegbeursians.

17. Oberstadt – Oberstadt

The Oberstadt is the historical center of Bonn and is known for its many historic buildings and monuments. The area is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike.

18. city market - Stadthalle

The Stadthalle is a popular destination for locals and tourists alike. It is home to many local shops and restaurants and is a hub of cultural activity.
Iserlohn is the largest town in the Märkischer Kreis District and has about 85,000 citizens. Its history goes back to the 10th century, and today it is one of Germany's most preserved medieval towns. It was once a centre of trade and industry and became known as "Eisernes Stadt" (Iron City) due to its rich history and many industrial buildings. The town is surrounded by beautiful parks and greenery, making it a great place to live. Iserlohn has a lot to offer, with many sights and attractions to explore. Whether you’re interested in history, culture, or simply enjoying the outdoors, Iserlohn has something for everyone.